

HB 2394 -- ETHICS

SPONSOR: Harris

This bill prohibits members of the General Assembly from registering as lobbyists after vacating their office until three years after the expiration of their term in office. Such members are also prohibited from serving as paid political consultants for one year after the expiration of their term in office and are prohibited from serving as elected local government official lobbyists while they are serving in the General Assembly.